Senior College:

PERFORMING ARTS

Prof.-In-Charge:

Ms. Ferviz Damania - Senior College
Prof. Ravi Rao - Junior College

Miss Sushma Karwarkar of T.Y.B.Com. class won the much coveted Menaka Trophy for Kathak - Classical Dance, when she was adjudged the "Best (1st Prize) Kathak Dansues" at the Bombay University Youth Festival.

Shilpa Chaphekar participated in the Indian Vocal Singing competition (at the Bombay University Youth Festival).

Miss Freethi Baghavan also put in her best efforts at the Inter-Collegiate Bharat Natyam -Classical Dance competition held by the Bombay University - Youth Festival.

The Music and Dance Society is perhaps one of the most popular societies in the ^{Junior} college. The society was formed with a view to inculcate a cultural tradition in performing arts and to encourage the Youth for active participation in the field of Music and Dance, with the focus on a search for potential artistes of tomorrow. We are happy to state that the students in the last 11 years have left a rich heritage of activities and we hope that their prize winning performances help the posterity to pick up from where they left off and continue to enrich and hold up the performing tradition. Our past students to name a few - Shri Biran Shembekar (Zapata Orchestra) Shrikant Kulkarni (Voice of Mukesh) Shri Vinod Rathod (Upcoming playback Singer) and Shri Arun Chandiwala Bina Sanghavi have established high reputation in the field of Music and Dance.

In fact, the activities of the Society shone into limelight within a span of a short period by bagging many awards at the Inter-Collegiate as well as national level competitions. The members of the society have undertaken various activities such as Music and Dance competitions, personality contests and Entertainment programmes. In the current year the onerous responsibility of General Secretaryship fell to James Phillip. The heavy brunt of responsibility was not felt to the same extent with the able assistance of the joint secretaries Mohan Shetty, Vinod Sakaria, Tina Lalwani and Jay Choraria.

Under the able guidance of Prof. Ravi Rao, the Society participated in the Inter-Collegiate Music Competition, organised by NITIE (National Institute of Training for Industrial Engineers) and bagged the 3rd prize for the group for the group song.

The competing members of the Society reached the finals at the Music competitions held by A.B.V.P.

The activities of the society were inaugurated by the famous Gazal Singers Shri Rajendra and Neena Kerkta on 17th December 1988. On this day the society also organised a Gazal competition (Mukesh Trophy) and Sham-e-Gazal programme.

Mohan Shetty was adjudged the best singer and bagged the Mukesh Trophy, a medal and a certificate. The 2nd and 3rd prizes were bagged by James Phillip and Roopa Chandawarker respectively. The consolation prizes were given to Ranjit Gazdar and Anahita Mody.

We had a glorious and successful function of Annual Day celebration, the concluding programme of the year 1988-89. Shri Bhalerao Ashok, A.C.P. graced the occasion with his presence and distributed the prizes and the certificates. It was followed by the entertainment programme. Shri Darshan Kumar and Party delighted the music lovers with the sound of Music. The mimicry item presented by Shri Madhav Moghe was the highlight of the programme. The record dance presented by Jitu and Anuradha and the Rajasthani Folk Dance by the members of the society were appreciated by one and all. Shri Sashikant Mistry directed the folk dance.
