YEAR 2000-2001

This period saw the birth of our annual festival 'Tsunami' which gave the stage to 22 colleges to display their talents. Tsunami was organised on the 25th and 26th August 2000. The wizard of Zee Televisions, Mr. Subhash Chandra Goyal inaugurated the function which was a grand success. The team which worked very hard to make this event a success, consisted of : Bhavi Ajmera, Arun Chopra, Aditya Puri, Nitin Karwa, Kavita Nachnani, Prachi Bhujrajka, Kshijit Agarwal, Pooja Tehron, Mohit Kapoor, Kirti Bogarrapu, Payal Doshi, Neil Kamat and Saurabh Suri.

Various cultural and academic events were organised for the 22 participating colleges, qualified to display their talents on the final day. Amidst tough competition, Jai Hind college emerged as the winner and walked away with our coveted trophy, which was presented to them by our Principal Prof. M.G. Shirahatti. Many more prizes, Gift coupons and merit certificates were won by other colleges. Celebrities from the fields of fashion, modelling and music were invited to judge the various events. Bali Brahmhatt's live performance was thoroughly enjoyed by the students.

Similarly, other colleges had their festivals and seminars, in many of them we stole the show. At the N.M. College, we secured 1st position for the event called 'Last man standing'. At the competitions conducted by the Bombay Management Association, we secured 2nd position in the field of computer graphics. At Khalsa College we secured 1st position for the event of creativity advertising. And finally to top it all, the much talked about Jai Hind College festival, namely TALSH, we won the overall trophy and also the cultural trophy, bringing name and fame to our college.

The students of Lala BMS also proved themselves in the area of sports. They participated in the sports festival of ATHLETICA 2000-2001, At Bhavans College Andheri. Saurabh Suri won the gold medal for 100m and long jump. We also emerged as runners up in Foot-ball and overall stood 3rd. The students had three industrial cum educational visits. JUNIOR COLLEGE 2000-2001 - Prof (Ms) S. Gaur

Our College is one of the most eminent colleges of South Mumbai and the only Commerce College in the city of Mumbai which has been accredited by National Assessment and Accreditation Council and has been awarded THREE STARS. This College has been named after a great freedom fighter, a renowned educationist and a dedicated social reformer Lala Lajpat Rai who is well known as the Lion of Punjab.

Our College provides academic excellence which is very much evident from our results. Our HSC results for the year 1999-2000 is 98 % with 222 in first class, 359 in second class and a mere 45 in Pass class. One of our students Ms. Gaurav Sunita has been listed among the merited students. The FYJC results for the year 1999-2000 is 88%. We have highly qualified well experienced and dedicated team of teachers who have helped actively for these results.

Our College aims at imparting education in totality i.e. we aim at the personality development of our students. This mammoth task is achieved by the various associations, academic and cultural.

Prof. Ms. Bijotkar in-charge of the English Literary Association organised Elocution competition, Poetry recitation competition and Essay writing competitions to boost the students communication skills. Prof.

Prof. Rai, Prof. In-charge of Hindi Association started the activities with Hindi Divas. Dr. Manjula Desai was the chief guest and her paper on 'Script of Hindi in 21st Century' was very enlightening. He also organised Elocution competition, poetry recitation competitions, Essay writing competitions and Debates. He also held a 'Rangoli' competition to provide a vent for their artistic talents. Some students participated in Inter-collegiate Elocution and poetry recitation competitions organised by B.M. Ruia college.

Prof. Ms. Shardul, Prof. in-charge of Marathi Vangmay Mandal commenced the activities with the celebration of 'Lokmanya Tilak Punyatithi'. She held Essay-writing competition and self composed poetry recitation competition on 12th Dec. 2000. They put up an exhibition 'Maharashtra Darshan' in which the students exhibited Models of famous monuments and festivals of the state of Maharashtra.

Students also exhibited pencil sketches of famous personalities of Maharashtra. Many students participated in the inter-collegiate competitions. One of our students Nainesh Sukale reached finals.

The activities of the Gujarati Association were inaugurated by Pro. Chandrakant Bakshi, ex sheriff of Mumbai. Prof. Ms. Sejal Shah, Prof. In-charge held various activities viz. Elocution Competition, Poetry recitation competition and Essay writing competition, Self-composed Poetry recitation competition and Essay writing competition. Some students participated in Inter-collegiate Elocution competition organised by Mani Havan and Patkar college.

The commerce Association under the leadership of Prof. Mahajan organised 'Quiz' viz. 'Kaun banega Commerce Wiz'. The response was so tremendous that this Quiz continued for two days.

The Punjabi Association in collaboration with Khalsa college, D.A.V. College and Guru Nanak College organised Punjab Festival 'Lashkara' to revive the Punjabi culture in the State of Maharashtra. Punjab Association of Mumbai not only provided active support but also sponsored the festival. Sardar Kulwantsinghji Kohli, Ex-sheriff of Mumbai and Seshri S.S. Bedi, Commissioner of Customs were the Chief Guests. Sardar Darshanjeet Singhji, Chairman, Bank of Punjab and President, Punjab Association was the guest of honour. Students from various colleges took part in the various events viz. Mehendi competition, Rangoli, Pot painting, singing, Dancing and Fashion show competitions. 'Lohri' the auspicious fire was lit and dinner was served to all the invitees.

Prof. Lende, Prof. in-charge of Film Society in collaboration with Prof. Ms. Mohana Bandkar, Prof. in-charge of Film Society of Sr. College screened two Hindi Block-busters - 'Dilwale Dulhaniya lejayenge' and 'Satya' for the entertainment of the students and the staff members.

Nature club under the leadership of Prof. Pathak and Prof. Phalke organised a visit to National Park and Kanheri Caves. Approximately 120 students joined the trip and enjoyed themselves in the natural surroundings and by snapping photographs.

Marathi Vangmay Mandal and Hindi Association jointly organised 'Anantotsav' a festival to encourage and help imbibe regional culture among the younger generation, which is highly influenced by the western culture. Though the festival was organised at the fag end of the year, as many as 15 colleges participated in various events viz. Acting, Singing, Dancing, Fashion show etc. and their prizes were awarded to the winners.

Our students' Council, a body which is formed entirely on merit worked diligently throughout the year under the able leadership of Mr. Laukik Visaria, the Chairman and Ms. Vibha Agarwal, the General Secretary, and under the able guidance of Prof. Valsunge and Prof. K.P. Patil, Prof. in-charge of Students Council. The activities of Students' Council were inaugurated on Independence Day eve with a grand cultural programme. They celebrated Ribbon Day to mark their friendship, with great enthusiasm. On 5th September, Teachers' Day was celebrated. Students paid their tributes to the teachers and gave gifts as a token of their love and respect. On Saree Day, young girls were all dressed up in their fineries and 'Tie Day' gave an opportunity to the young boys to dress up formally. On 'Traditional Dress Day' the scene in the premises was ravishing and one could observe 'Unity in Diversity' in its real sense in the premises. Rose Day was a great hit. Simul Mehta was declared 'Rose Queen'. Talent Day was organised to spot the hidden talents of the budding artists in the Junior college. Various competitions were held in Fine Arts and performing arts events and prizes were awarded to the winners.

Shishir the only inter-Jr. college Festival, which was first started by our college in 1998 is gaining in popularity over the years. 'SHISHIR 2000' was held on 15th & 16th Dec. 2000. Almost 25 Junior colleges attached to Degree Colleges and schools participated in this festival. Competitions were held in approx. 20 events under the heads 'Sing to the tune', 'Fine Arts', 'Crack your Brain' and 'Heart throbbing', in addition to events like Fashion

Show, Personality contest and Shishir Bakhra. Students from the various colleges performed with gusto. Competitions were rather tough. St. Xavier's college emerged the winner and won SHISHIR trophy. Our college was the Runner up. Gaurav Desai from SIES College and Dilnaz Balsara from our college were crowned Mr. Shishir and Ms. Shishir. Some celebrities like Mr. Salman Abbas and Ms. Rubi Bhatia made their appearances and boosted the confidence of the participants. Fun-n-fair and Jam session were the highlights of the festival.

Our College participated in the Winter carnival held in Manali, at National level, from 10th to 14th January 2001. A team of 35 students along with Prof. Patil, Mrs. S. Kuriakose and a group of musicians went to Manali. Our students competed with professional artistes coming from all over India. Ms. Pranali Dhotre won the 1st prize in classical Dance. Our Fashion show group won the 2nd prize and our Folk-dance group won the 3rd prize. This trip also provided them an opportunity to do some sight-seeing. They visited Amritsar, Agra, Fatehpur Sikri, Jaipur and Delhi, and other famous monuments.

Our college has provided the best amenities for the staff and students of this college. Our Library has a huge collection of Books and periodicals, with a spacious reading room and a research room. We have a well equipped Health centre, which is visited by various specialists who take care of all health problems of our staff and students. Our canteen provides nutritious food at very reasonable rates.

We also have Internet facilities in our college. Our college is on the website since 28th Jan. 2000.

Our college Gymkhana activities started in July 2000, under the expert leadership of our Physical Director, Prof. S.N. Bhagwat. Our Foot-ball team started its practice at TNMC ground under the able guidance of their coach Shri Victor D'Souza. This team played District inter-collegiate Foot-ball Tournament and reached pre-quarter finals. The same team played Inter-collegiate Foot-ball tournament conducted by Jr. College Sports Association of Mumbai.

Our Boxing team practised under the guidance of their coach. Mr. Aspy Khatow. This team represented the college in the inter-collegiate Competition. Mr. Charles David secured 2nd prize in the District Boxing Competition. Mr. Kankaria Jitesh and Mr. Qureshi Tariq secured 2nd prize in Inter-collegiate Boxing competition conducted by Jr. College Sports Association Mumbai.

Our college students participated in Inter-collegiate Cricket, Table Tennis, Volley ball, Badminton and Tennis Tournaments and performed well. Our table tennis team reached upto quarter-final rounds in inter-collegiate Tournament conducted by District and Jr. College sports association of Mumbai.

In Chess competition Mr. Sachdev Mihir gave a commendable performance and was called for selection at State level.

Our college Annual Athletic Meet was held in the month of December 2000 at University Sports Pavilion, Marine lines, Mumbai. Approx. 300 students participated in the Meet.

Mr. Rohit Topte was declared Men Athletic Champion with Mr. Prashant Shah as Runner up, whereas Ms. Hetal Gala was declared Women Athletic champion with Ms. Jalpa Modi as Runner up.

Our N.S.S. Unit conducted its activities from July 2000 under the Guidance of Prof. S.N. Bhagwat and Prof. K.P. Patil. Approx. 168 students joined N.S.S. The activities of N.S.S. were inaugurated on 4th August 2000, by the Vice-Principal, Mrs. S.K. Garg. On 6th August, 2000, our NSS Volunteers Campaigned against Nuclear weapons. On 13th Sept. 2000, Mr. Vivek Patki was invited to give a lecture on Personality Development. On 24th Sept. 2000, the students celebrated NSS Day by cleaning the college premises and the College garden. The Traffic Week was celebrated from 24th Oct. to 30th Octo. 2000. Our volunteers went to Nana chowk, Haji Ali and Mumbai Central to extend their help to the Traffic Police. They also maintained Queue on the Bus Stops. On 6th December 2000, a lecture was given by Dr. D.G. Saple on HIV/Aids, which created an awareness among the students about this dreadful disease. On 11th January 2001, Mr. ASrvind Vaidya delivered a lecture on 'Communal Harmony'.

We are indebted to our Principal for this excellent overall achievements. Our Principal is indeed a friend, philosopher and guide in every sense. Members of the teaching staff have also worked hard throughout the years, not only for academic excellence but for their students' total personality development. Our Coaches Mr. D. Souza, Mr. S.D. Acharekar, Mr. Padmanabha Bankapure and Mr. Aspi Khatow deserve all kudos for their sincere involvement in our sports activities throughout the year.

SHISHIR 2000 - Prof. Ms. S. Garg

December is the month eagerly awaited by the students of Junior Colleges all over Mumbai and suburbs to gather in the premises of Lala Lajpat Rai College of Commerce & Economics not only to rejoice and have fun but to display their talents. The Lala Lajpat Rai College pioneered 'SHISHIR' an inter-Junior college festival in 1998 and to-date is the only college to provide a platform for the students of Junior colleges attached to Degree colleges and schools all over Mumbai to display their talents.

SHISHIR means winter and winter is normally associated with a cosy fire-side environment at home. 'Slogan of SHISHIR' means 'come close this winter' is an open invitation to all the students of Jr. college to come forward and join us for the display of their talents and have a lot of fun.

SHISHIR 2000 was organised on 15th and 16th of Dec. 2000. A Committee was formed to organise this festival under the guidance of Prof. H.B. Valsunge and Prof. K.P. Patil. Ms. Manasi Shah was the Chairman and Mr. Guru-Dutt Vyas worked as General Secretary. A group of 40 students volunteered their services for the field work. They were divided into small groups to handle various fields viz. getting sponsorship. Preparation and distribution of brochures to the Junior colleges and other administrative work. All these volunteers were very confident and were in high spirits.

The activities of SHISHIR 2000 started on 12th Dec. 2000. Competitions were held in almost 20 events which were divided into 5 groups :

- 1) Sing to the tune
- 2) Dance to the tune
- 3) Fine arts
- 4) Crack your brain
- 5) Heart throbbing events.

The response was not tremendous that it became very difficult to hold all the competitions within two days i.e. 15th to 16th December. Fine Arts events were conducted on 12th Dec. 2000. It consisted of events like Rangoli, Cartooning, Face painting and Wall hanging.

These competitions were very colourful and artistic event. A Student from Lala Lajpat Rai College won the first prize. Cartooning event was unique in itself. Cartoons were sketched on current happenings. A student from St. Xaviers College won the first prize. Face painting event was quite artistic. Father Agnel's College was awarded the first prize. The spectacular wall hangings prepared by N.M. College students was awarded the first prize. The judges for these events were Ms. Mona Thakkar and Ms. Jalpa who themselves are great artistes.

'Crack your brains' consisted of intellectual events viz. debating crosswords, Quiz and love-letter writing. These events were held on 12th Dec. 2000.

The debating competition was a healthy competition between eloquent speakers from various colleges on current problems. Hinduja College won the first prize. Dr. Shalini Chandra and Prof. Ms. Neeru Seleri were the judges. 'Cross word' was based on Hindi films. Lala Lajpat Rai College bagged the 1st prize.

'Quiz Us' event was a great test of the intellect of the participants, as questions were asked from various fields. A student from SIES college won the first prize. Love-letter writing was a unique event. The letters were great fun to read. Lala Lajpat Rai College was awarded the first prize.

'Sing to the tune' was a musical event. It consisted of solo singing, Duet singing, Antakshari and instrumental music. The elimination round of this event was held on 13th Dec. 2000. All the singers being extremely melodious, decision making was tough for the judges. St. Xaviers college was awarded the first prize in solo singing and Antakshari. SIES College was awarded the first prize for duet singing, and R.J. College bagged the first prize in instrumental music.

Dance to the tune consisted of three events viz. Hindi Group Dance, Western Group Dance and Folk Dance. The events were held on 16th Dec. 2000. The costumes were very colourful and their movements were very rhythmic. Mr. Gajendra Gujarati, a great Dancer, who judged the event was amazed to see the talent of the participants. Lala Lajpat Rai College won the first prize in Hindi Group Dance. Eafna College in Western Group Dance and Lala Lajpat Rai College bagged the first prize in Folk dance.

The heart-throbbing events were Fashion Show. Personality contest and SHISHIR BAKRA which are highly popular among the young students. Participants in Fashion Show presented the latest trends in western, formal and sports wear. SIES College stole the show and won the first prize. There was a neck to neck competition for personality contest. Mr. Gaurav Desai of SIES College was crowned Mr. SHISHIR and Miss Delnaz Balsara of Lala Lajpat Rai College was crowned MS. SHISHIR. THE EVENT 'shishir bakra' was a lot of fun. Bhavans college Andheri was awarded the first prize.

16th evening was the most eagerly awaited time by all the prize winners. Each and every college kept their fingers crossed for overall ratings which was as follows :

St. Xaviers - First prize - Trophy
Lala Lajpat Rai - Runners up

The overall rotating trophy donated by vice-Principal Prof. Mrs. S.K. Garg was bagged by St. Xaviers college.

Thus the two days' festival came to an end. It was a grand success. The credit for its success goes to its creators, Prin. M.G. Shirhatti, Vice-Principal Prof. Mrs. S.K. Garg, and Prof. In-Charge of Shishir, Prof. H.B. Valsunge and Prof. K.P. Patil. It was their guidance and leadership that inspired our student organisers of shishir with confidence and unshakable faith in themselves to work as a unit for a mission called SHISHIR.
